AUDITOR FEE SCHEDULE
Community Newspapers
as of January 1, 2024

CMCA Auditors are trained independent circulation auditing service providers approved by the CMCA program. All new CMCA participants are required to have their Initial Report audited by a CMCA Auditor. Subsequent community newspaper audits may then be audited by either a CMCA Auditor or an independent chartered accountant appointed by the publisher.

Use of the CMCA Auditor is subject to an auditor fee, which is due at the start of the audit. The Auditor fee is paid directly to the CMCA Auditor, reflecting the auditor-client relationship. The auditor fee is separate from the annual CMCA program fee paid to News Media Canada.

Auditor fee payment must accompany the report submission and should be made payable to your chosen auditor. Submit auditor fee payment along with Initial or Annual report to the CMCA office.
